Amy Marshall accepts position as Assistant Vice President & Bethel Branch Manager with Norway Savings Bank

NORWAY, Maine – Norway Savings Bank is pleased to announce that Amy Marshall has accepted the position of Assistant Vice President & Bethel Branch Manager.

Marshall began her career with Norway Savings Bank in 1999 as a Customer Service Representative in the bank's Oxford Branch located inside Wal-Mart. She quickly moved up through the branch serving as a Supervisor and then Branch Manager by 2002. In 2006, she transferred to the bank's South Paris branch as Business Development Officer. In her most recent position with the bank, Marshall returned to the Oxford Branch as Branch Manager, where she has become a major contributor to the bank's indirect lending program.

Marshall has been a resident of the Bethel area for many years. She is not only an active contributor to the Norway Savings Bank team, but is a very involved in her community as well. She participates in many committees for the bank and volunteers with the Rotary Club and March of Dimes.
